The 10 DAY CREDIT PERIOD shall begin on the day following presentation of the invoice. If payments are made by mail, the date of mailing, as determined by the postmark, shall be the date of presentation and payment. Failure to comply with these credit terms may result in the Vendor requiring payment in full prior to acceptance of further shipments.

In applying for an extension of credit from Red Bluff Sand & Gravel, LLC, the undersigned represents and warrants that the purpose of such credit is for business or commercial purposes exclusively and that such credit is not for personal, family or household purposes. This Agreement may be executed by facsimile or scanned and returned by email but shall nevertheless be binding on the parties.

Should credit be granted, applicant agrees to make payments within the 10 day credit period and further agrees payments will not be delayed or withheld due to alleged errors in billing, unsettled overcharge or loss and damage claims or because of other unpaid items which might be due the applicant from the Vendor.
